Transfer Reports

This data is furnished to us by the National Student Clearinghouse (NSC). From the NSC report, sixty five percent of students were found and reported, the remained thirty five percent reported either no response, or were blocked by the school or student. NSC can not provide attendance and completion data for colleges that do not report these data to the Clearinghouse.

Accounting Program Outcomes

Graduates of the A.A.S in Accounting will be able to:

- Analyze and record financial transactions and properly report financial information in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles
- Identify and apply individual income tax and payroll tax laws
- Demonstrate professional business communication skills – both written and oral
- Master accounting and entry-level business software applications
- Perform accounting functions and applications in both a “manual” and a computerized accounting system

B. Target/Criterion:

70% of ACCT students who successfully complete ACCT 202 will score 70% or higher on the standardized departmental wide ACCT

- Instructors will more strongly emphasize the importance of the accounting cycle. Instructors will also more strongly stress the importance of using the practice problems in preparing for the assessment.
- Instructors will increase their effort in stressing the time factor and encourage students to practice time management when completing practice cycle problems on their own.
- Instructors will investigate ways to administer the assessment to online students as well.

N

- Students will prepare an accounting cycle problem in ACCT 202.

A. Findings:

23 out of 25 ACCT majors who completed the course with a C or above passed the assessment 92%

- Target Met

B. Use of Results:

- Providing more information to the students about the accounting cycle, (i.e., a more comprehensive review), especially to students that have been out of school for several semesters.

- Focusing more focusing time on the accounting cycle in ACCT-201. I believe that this is currently being done and the results of these increased efforts will begin to yield results over the next few semesters.

- spending more time on the accounting at the beginning of ACCT-202. Although this can be somewhat of a challenge because of the material the is required to

A. Findings:

For Accounting Majors, our results were that 93.2% of students who completed the course with a grade of C or higher obtained a grade of 70% or higher on the Excel Mastery Assessment (the Excel Chapter 1 Grader Project). This is above our target of 70% of students. The average grade was 85.2% and forty-four students were in this group.

70% of Business Administration majors who successfully complete this course students will score 70% or higher on the leadership assessment instrument.

N

Since we are trying to establish a base line, only selected sections of MANG 201 will give the assessment in year 1.

A. Findings:

- Number of Bus. Adm. Students who completed MANG 201 course with a C or higher = 29
- Number of Bus. Adm. Students who completed MANG 201 Leadership Assessment with a C or higher = 25

\[ \% = 86.2\% \]

Target ??? Met

B. Use of Results:

1. Discuss with the MANG 201 online instructors a recommendation for how to monitor the students taking the Leadership Assessment in a proctored environment. This will be discussed with the MANG 201 faculty during the Summer 2017 training session.

2. The Leadership Assessment Tool will be administered to all MANG 201 Principles of Management students. The current assessment of 56 questions will be used as the study guide. The assessment will be 50 of the 56 questions. This assessment will be valued at 100 points. The Leadership Assessment and Study Guide will be shared with the faculty. who will be teaching MANG 201 Fall 2017. Six faculty are scheduled to teach 15 sections. They are: Beverly Andry, Simone Stewart Cochran, Brandy Delarge, Joseph Hebert, Mark McLean, and Fran Norwood. A face-to-face training session will be offered during the Summer of 2017 to prepare the Fall 2017 MANG 201 Faculty for the Leadership Assessment process.
