

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Prospective students seeking admission to Delgado Community College must meet the admission requirements for the category under which they are entering. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year. Students can register for credit classes only during the registration periods listed in the class schedule. Certain programs have special admission requirements and a separate application process. These programs are Culinary Arts, Nursing, Allied Health programs, and Teaching (Grades 1-5). Applicants to these programs should contact these departments for further details.

GENERAL ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

- An application for admission ($25 application fee/$50 international application fee). The non-refundable fee is good for one fiscal year (Fall through Summer).
- Provide proof of immunization against MMR (Measles, Mumps, and Rubella) and tetanus-diphtheria, if born after 1956; all first-time freshmen must provide proof of immunization against meningococcal meningitis. The proof of immunization must be submitted on the state approved form.
- Proof of registration with the military selective service for male applicants between the ages of 18 and 26 (in compliance with State Law R.S. 17:3151).
