

DELGADO CULINARY ARTS HOSTS WORLD RENOWNED PASTRY CHEF EWALD NOTTER

Delgado's Culinary Arts Department hosted globally renowned Pastry Chef Ewald Notter, world champion and founder of the Notter School of Pastry Arts in Orlando, Fla., for a demonstration of the best-kept secrets to exquisite praline production and chocolate showpiece creation at Delgado's City Park Campus on Tuesday, Jan. 20.

The demonstration, which was followed by a reception, was sponsored by Albert Uster Imports and was attended by culinary leaders from the region.

Delgado Culinary Arts faculty and students were also invited to attend the free demonstration. Attendees were able to become well-versed in the sweet language of chocolate while achieving two continuing education points from this ACF certified, complimentary tutorial. Following the presentation, attendees were given the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to get one-on-one with Chef Notter at a reception where he addressed their questions personally.
