

CULINARY ARTS SERVES UP BBQ TURKEY LEGS AT FRENCH QUARTER FESTIVAL

The renowned Culinary Arts programs of Delgado Community College and Louisiana Technical College (LTC) Region 1 will join forces to serve up delectable barbeque smoked turkey legs at the 2009 French Quarter Festival April 17-19, 2009.

The Delgado/LTC Culinary Arts booth will be located on the Kohlmeier Lawn in Woldenberg Park (see between boxes 2 and 4 on the bottom left of the map below). The turkey legs they will be selling have been slow barbeque smoked, and are a huge meal for only $8 each. Proceeds from food sales will benefit the Delgado and LTC Region 1 Culinary Arts programs.

French Quarter Festival visitors can use cash to purchase items at any festival food booth. For those who wish to use credit cards, food tickets can also be purchased in increments of one dollar at any official French Quarter Festival information booth.
