

FRIENDLY COMPETITION EQUALS FUN AT FIRST STUDENT/FACULTY VOLLEYBALL GAME

Faculty and students went head-to-head for some friendly – though sometimes fierce – competition at the first Student/Faculty Volleyball Game on June 11 at the Delgado City Park Campus.

Faculty team players included hard-hitters Harold Gaspard, Missy Lacour, Jennifer Lang, John Hill, Victor Mirzai, Bettie Abbate, Mary Bartholomew and Steve Trichell, led by Team Captain René Cintrón. René and Jennifer also lent their creativity to the creation of the posters and numbering of the T-shirts, which were generously donated by the Student Government Association. Other faculty and staff members who lent invaluable help and support to make it all happen were Steve Andrus, Michelle Greco, Scott Borne and Lorraine Zeringue.

A host of faculty “cheerleaders” were on hand at the game, too, to encourage their team and point some not-so-subtle intimidation at the student team in the form of signs reading such slogans as “Hit the Books, Not the Net,” “Fear Faculty,” “We Will School You,” “Don’t Drop Your Day Class” and “Have Your A.S. Handed to You.”

The next game will be during the fall 2009 semester Welcome Fest!
