

DELGADO MUSIC INSTRUCTOR KEVIN GEORGE COMPOSES DISTINGUISHED WORKS

Kevin George, Delgado Community College instructor of Music, was a guest composer at the Baton Rouge Community College Arts Fest 09 on April 22, 2009. He was commissioned to compose a piece for electro/acoustic Vibraphone. The work, which is titled "Butterflies in a Garden," was premiered at recital by Dr. Charles Brooks and the Louisiana Youth Orchestra percussion ensemble. George also taught a master class on recording techniques using computer technology and current industry software at the fest.

Additionally, George's composition "Symphonic Poem #1, Reflections in a Garden" was selected as one of the winning works to be recorded and included in the upcoming volume of ERMMedia's landmark compact disc series Made in the Americas. The recording will take place in Norfolk, Va., in May 2009, with the Millennium Symphony orchestra under the direction of Robert Ian Winstin. The Made in Americas CD is scheduled for release in September 2009.
