

DELGADO AND LTC REGION 1 EMPLOYEES HONORED AT ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Delgado and LTC Region 1 recently awarded several of its employees for outstanding service to their school at the Louisiana Community and Technical College System Annual Conference. The conference was held in Shreveport, La., April 23 – 25, with the theme “Delivering on the Guarantee: Building a 21st Century Workforce.” More than 600 system employees were in attendance and experienced both personal and professional development through a series of informative breakout sessions.

On Friday, April 24, an awards luncheon was held at the Shreveport Convention Center and awardees were recognized in the following categories: Outstanding Professional Staff, Outstanding Faculty, Outstanding Professional Support Staff and Distinguished Retiree. Fifty-seven recipients from across the LCTCS were given jade-glass plaques. Three of these were from Delgado and three were from LTC Region 1. They are: Lynn Robertson, Angela Breckenridge and Susan Farenholtz from Delgado and Cynthia Williams-Turner, Leshia Coulon and Deborah Mullins from LTC Region 1.

Angela Breckenridge

Lynn Robertson

Susan Farenholtz

Cynthia Williams-Turner, Provost/Dean Kim Rugon, Leshia Coulon and Debbie Mullins