

SOCIOLOGY CLASS ACTIVITIES RAISE FUNDS FOR HAITIAN ORPHANAGE

Melanie Deffendall's Sociology 151 Class has taken on the task of collaborating to make a positive change in society by raising money through Jul. 16, 2008, to educate children in Haiti through an orphanage, Servants of All Ministry.

First, the class is holding a bake sale 9 a.m. – 3 p.m. on Wednesday, Jul. 9, 2008, in front of the Fitness Center, behind Building One on the City Park Campus. All kinds of goodies, such as donuts, bagels, brownies, cupcakes, cakes, cookies and much more, will be for sale, with proceeds benefitting Servants of All Ministry. In addition, donations (tax deductible upon request) for this worthy cause will also be willingly accepted at the table, and tickets for a Jul. 16 raffle can be purchased.

Second, the class is holding a car wash benefit at Clean Xtreme Auto Detailing at 4416 Clearview Pkwy., Metairie, La. 70006 (at the corner of Clearview and W. Esplanade, across from Walgreen's) 12 – 4 p.m. on Sunday, Jul. 13, 2008. The car wash is free, but donations will be accepted to directly benefit Servants of All Ministry.

In addition, the class will raffle a number of prizes to benefit the mission, including: gift certificates to Blockbuster, Smoothie King, Target, Zea's, Copeland's, John Jay Hair Salon, Olive Garden, Mikimoto Japanese Restaurant, iTunes, dinner for two at the Crystal Room at Le Pavillon Hotel, Honey Baked Ham, a free facial, a free oil change, a free car detailing, a teeth whitening kit, and more. The prize drawing will be held 11 a.m. on Jul. 16, 2008, and prize winners will be notified shortly after. Tickets will be on sale for $1 each at the bake sale, the car wash and at select times and places on Delgado's City Park Campus through Jul. 16 (see below for details).
