

DEAN of NURSING

Delgado Community College is looking for an innovative, student-centered advocate to serve as the Dean of Nursing. The Dean is the driving catalyst for a vibrant and growing division, working collaboratively with faculty and healthcare partners to continue the 125-year legacy of the renowned Charity School of Nursing. The Dean will play a key role in the 2023 opening of a brand new, state-of-the-art facility on the College's City Park Campus. The Dean of Nursing is the administrative leader of the associate degree, practical nursing, and nursing assistant programs. This position also includes a temporary assignment as the Executive Dean of the Charity Campus, until the opening of the new facility.

This key leadership position will be responsible for expanding the nursing programs and implementing initiatives that will improve faculty and student recruitment, diversity, enrollment, retention, and graduation rates. This leader provides vision and innovative leadership needed to advance the nursing programs while creating an environment centered around student access and student success. Reporting directly to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs, the position serves as a member of the Deans Council and contributes to the development of new programs, budget, strategic planning, articulation, and advancement of the long-range vision for academic affairs.
