

Delgado students are required to have a mitigating circumstance in order to apply for an appeal.
Note: A mitigating circumstance is an unusual, unexpected, or non-recurring event beyond the student's control.
Examples of mitigating circumstances for which an appeal may be filed include, but are not limited to, personal illness, injury, undue hardship, or death in the student's immediate family.

Please make sure to add your name and LoLA number on each page you submit with your appeal form.
