Medicare

Medicare is a federally run program designed for the elderly and for persons with disabilities. For a person with a disability to be eligible, they must be receiving Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI). If your loved one has limited income and resources, they may also be eligible to receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI). To see if your loved one is eligible for SSDI or SSI and to start the application process, call or visit:

www.healthcare.gov

A printable application can be found in the pdf forms session.

There are healthcare programs that offer free or low-cost services for those who do not have health insurance. You can call VIA Link at 211 or 1(800) 749-2673 to ask about programs in your area.

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) provides monthly benefits that help eligible low-income households buy the food they need for good health. For most households, SNAP funds account for only a portion of their food budgets; they must also use their own funds to buy enough food to last throughout the month. Eligible households can receive food assistance through regular SNAP or through the Louisiana Combined Application Project (LaCAP).

For more information on SNAP and other services available through the Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS), call or go online:
